BELMONT HORSES IN FORM

S. C. HILDRETH SADDLES TWO MORE WIN NERS FOR JOCKEY CLUB CHAIRMAN.

Stromboli, in Winning Two-Year-Old Allowance Race Unextended, Equals New Track Record Made Earlier in the Day by Yankee Notions, Baltimore, Md., October 10.—The horses of August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, won two of the six races at Laurel this afternoon, Fittergold, the brother to Fair Play, took the opening dash handly from Addie M., and in the fifth Stromboli, by Fair Play—St. Prisekla, and consequently a half-brother to Priscillian, was the winner. Stromboli by sictory was his second at Laurel, making the Belmont score four races for the meeting. The victory of Stromboli was earned easily, the western Canada youngster, Gotelus, failing to make him extend himself at the end. Gotelus performance, however, was highly creditable. He carried top weight of 122 pounds and was in the thick of the struggle all the way.

Mr. Belmont might have scored another victory with Belamour in the third race had not the horse's saddle slipped. Tomny McTaggart came back to his sount. R. T. Wilson's Yaukee Notions, which seems to be coming back to his good form of last fall, took this race rather comortably in the best time of the meeting for the distance, the five and a half furlongs being run in 1:06%, a new track record. Stromboli equaled this mark in winning the fifth. Holonob, while at the post for this race, broke away from Johnny McTaggart and made two circuits of the track before he was pulled up and, after the finish, he went another half. He ran the first mile in 1:44%. Old Sir John Johnson showed a flash of his old form in showing the way to the head of the stretch. He faltered towards the end, but was only beaten for second money by a nose.

Mollie S., winner of the fourth race, was bid up after her victory from $600 to $1,005, at which ligure she was retained. Sam Louis did the bidding. Beduction, froy 4he same stable, which won the skuth race, was highly stable the Raleigh Hotel in Weshington and developed the stretche. He faltered towards the canded skuth race, was bid up after her victory from $600 to $1,005, at which legure she was retained. Sam Louis did the bidding.

E. F. Cooney, who races a string of horses that includes Guy Fisher and Punch Bowl, was taken suddenly sick at the Raleigh Hotel in Washington last night and was removed to the Gardield Hospital.

Jockey Willie Allen departed for Piping Rock tonight to ride Leumas for Samuel Ross in a steeple-chase. In the five years that Allen has been riding he has piloted 98 winners over the jumps.

Roxie Angarola today sold the two-year-old Cooster to I. B. Bernstein, a local jeweler. The horse will be turned over to Max Hirsch to train.

J. O. Talbott scratched Fred Mulholland today on account of the death of his father.

BIG STABLES GOING TO CHARLESTON.

Many Reservations Already Made by Prominent Owners for Stables at Palmetto Park.

Charleston, S. C., October 10.—Entries for the stakes to be run at Palmetto Park the coming winter are coming in fast from horsemen throughout the country and applications for stalls are exceeding expectations. Members of the racing fraternity have been coming in and going out of Charleston in large numbers for the past two weeks, looking for suitable accommodations for themselves and their families during the racing period.

Among the well known horsemen who have already applied for stalls is John W. Schorr, of Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Schorr has applied for thirty stalls and will bring his famous three-year-old Leochares, which recently equaled the American record for three-quarters of a mile when he ran the distance in 1:10½ at Donglas Park, Louisville, Ky. Thomas F. Sheedy of New York will bring his string here and W. T. Anderson has engaged twenty stalls. G. W. Langdon will bring, among others, Addie M., which is owner by Dr. J. W. Messervy of Charleston. She ran third in the Futurity. R. F. Carman will bring a string of thirty-two. Surprising will be his chief Palmetto Derby candidate. A. G. Blakeley will have twenty-two: ten of them will be yearlings bred by Messrs, Comstock and Lawrence, of Lincoln. Cal. J. J. McCafferty, who is training Dr. Tyree's horses, will have twenty-two. H. G. Bedwell will have one of the largest stables here. W. P. Burch will be back again this year with Dr. Duenner, Shackleton and ten others. The stable of J. L. Holland of New York will require about thirty stalls. Albert Simons is expected to bring some of H. P. Whitney's horses, and A. G. Weston will bring gone of Frederick Johnson's horses and Anchie Zinmer will have Scarsdale, Inspector Lestrade and others.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

O. A. Bianchi and C. F. Cisco own in partnership a weanling colt by Bearcatcher—Lavena C. that the former will break and develop as a yearling next

The attendance at Churchill Downs on the day the Kentucky Endurance Stakes was run was estimated at 15,000. About $25,000 was wagered on the race in the pari-mutuels.

John Powers, who saddled Jack Atkins for some of his notable successes, was among the eastern delegation that made the trip to Churchill Downs for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes.

Frederick Johnson proposes to make a subscrip-on for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes again next ason and if Cock o' the Walk trains well next ason that horse will carry his colors in the four-mile race.

George Gallagher, who is County Jailer at Los Angeles, made the long trip from the Pacific coast to Louisville for the running of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes. He is 70 years of age and has been away from Kentucky for fifty years.

away from Kentucky for hity years.

The Berlin Sport Welt publishes this paragraph:
"The mare Erzherzogin, which ran last week at Karlshorst, then a few days afterward at Stettin, and yesterday again at Karlshorst, has had this year
a foal which was weaned when five weeks old so that his eleven-year-old mother could be put in training again."

Training again.

The success of Mrs. L. A. Livingston's gallant mare, Pandorina, in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes is a popular victory here. The blue and silver jacket has a host of friends among Canadian race goers and the sterling performance of Pandorina at Woodbline ten days ago pointed to something good in the long Kentucky race.—Toronto Globe.

CORRECTION OF ODDS.

The closing straight odds against Colonel Ashmeade in race 11918 were 3½ to 1, instead of as previously published.

BRADLEY'S CHOICE WINS IMPRESSIVELY.

Owner of Idle Hour Farm Refuses $17,500 for Geld ing After Churchill Downs Victory.

Louisville, Ky., October 10.—E. R. Bradley's crack juvenile, Bradley's Choice, confirmed the good ophilon generally entertained of him when he won the six-furlongs handicap at Churchill Downs this afternoon in easy fashion from good opposition. He was conceding much weight to all the other starters, but disposed of the contenders in convincing fashion and won under hard restraint. Edith W., in a hard drive, outstayed Old Ben for second place. Hodge was regarded as a likely factor before the tace, principally by the Canadian contingent, and had their extensive support. He finished a distant trailer and, interference that he suffered on the stretch turn, was seized upon as an excuse for his poor showing. Bradley's Choice went into the lead immediately after the barrier arose and, disposing of Emerald Gem in the first half, ran to the finish unattended, with Edith W. and Old Ben fighting it out many lengths behind him for second place. Before Bradley's Choice left the track, trainer Mose Goldblatt, acting on behalf of Jefferson Livingston, made Mr. Bradley an offer of $17,500 for the gelding and it was promptly refused, Mr. Bradley holding out for $20,000. It is likely that negotiations will be renewed and that the gelding will in the near future become a member of the Livingston establishment.

There was a slight falling off in the betting and attendance today. The reason for the slump in speculation was chiefly due to the unwieldy fields that started in four of the races. The racing was again interesting and was featured by close finishes, The favorites were beaten in the races where the big fields started, Bradley's Choice and Sonada being the only choices to score. The latter's victory came in the fifth race, in which selling platers of good class participated, Sonada ran as if he outclassed Cream and Star Actress, his chief opponents.

cool class participated. Sonada ran as if he outclassed Cream and Star Actress, his chief opponents.

Iridescence was the first favorite to fail. She brought up in third place. Margaret Lowry, at long colds, whining by a nose from Christmas Eve. Lucille Allen, favorite of the second race, failed, to get any portion of the purse, Mrs. Gamp just lasting long enough to beat the outsider, Bittra, with Mack B. Eubanks in third place. Cracker Box furnished the upset in the third by winning in a romp. His suddenly improved showing over his effort of yesterday occasioned much comment. Chartier, the favorite, was second, with Patruche, which had been practically left at the post, getting up for third money.

Falcada was instelled first choice for the closing race, but the best he could do was to land third. Rash and Ocean Queen, both of which rain improved form, finished first and second.

The tracing tomorrow will begin at 2 p. m. on account of seven races being carded.

The trio of sharpers who attempted to defraud the Douglas Park management last Saturday by presenting bogus tickets for collection on winners, were today indicted by the grand jury and held for trial in the criminal court. They were returned to jail pending trial in default of $2,500 bonds each. Manager Hachmeister is determined in his prosecution of the offenders and aims to make an example of the culprits.

The officials here, not being thoroughly satisfied that Florenz Israel is not having a hand in making J. Kederis' riding engagements, and as trainer Goldblatt cannot give his attention to making them, they have given permission to trainer W. M. Wallace to look after the boy's mounts.

O. A. Blanchi (Dangle Smith) today sold Irish Gentleman to J. H. Mend.

Trainer Goldblatt today announced that Prince Eugene has fully recovered from his four-mile Gentleman to J. H. Mead.

Trainer Goldblatt today announced that Prince Eagene has fully recovered from his four-mile effort and is now showing no symptoms of ill-effects. He will likely rest during the remainder of this meeting and start at Latonia.

J. P. Mayberry, who brought Cock o' the Walk here to start in the four-mile race, departed this morning with his charge for Belmont Park, where the colt will be wintered and given a chance to recover from the injury sustained while being prepared for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes. Owner Frederick Johnson also departed this morning for Laurel.

John Hachmeister and his assistant, Frank Bruen.

John Hachmeister and his assistant, Frank Bruen, will leave tomorrow for Latonia, where they will begin preliminary work in connection with the eighteen days' meeting to be held there immediately following the close of racing here.

GOVERNOR IS AGAINST BOOKMAKING.

Baltimore, Md., October 10.—Gov, Philip I., Goldsborough today declared it to be his intention to conduct a campaign designed to suppress bookmaking on the Maryland race tracks. He said the fight will be waged in the next legislature. "A law prohibiting bookmaking as it is now carried on at certain race tracks is the only effective way to stamp out this form of betting," said the governor. "We were unsuccessful in our appeals to the courts for check race track gambling in this state and now it is realized that the only sure means is remedy by legislation."

Havre de Grace and Laurel are the tracks at which bookmaking is conducted. At Pimlico and other Baltimore County courses the pari-mutuels are employed.

$2 mutuels paid, Rash, $20.30 straight, $11.30 place, $6.20 show; Ocean Queen, $15.20 place, $8.00 show; Falcada, $4.40 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Rash, 915 to 100 straight, 465 to 100 place, 210 to 100 show; Ocean Queen, $600 to 100 place, 300 to 100 show; Falcada, 120 to 100 show.

Winner—Br. g, by Hastings—Lady Rayon (trained by J. C. Gallaher).

Went to post at 4:56. At post 1 minute. Start fair and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. RASH raced in a forward position to the stretch turn, where he ran into the lead and easily held the others safe at the end. OCEAN OUEEN was a prominent contender all the way and held on gamely in the closing drive. FALCADA began slowly and finished fast. BIAAVE showed speed, but tired badly in the stretch. GUIDE POST closed a big gap. BROOKFIELD quit after going a good half mile.
